

"Reads like a crime novel . . . each chapter ends on a cliff-hanging note." —Seattle Times

THE BEAST IN THE GARDEN

DAVID BARON

THE TRUE STORY
OF A PREDATOR'S
DEADLY RETURN
TO SUBURBAN AMERICA

common reading experience 2009–10

SAVE THE DATE

AUGUST 28 10:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m., Center of Southwest Studies

Exhibit: Mountain Lion! The Center of Southwest Studies and Colorado Division of Wildlife open a major exhibit on the scientific and cultural role of mountain lions in American society.

AUGUST 28 4:00 – 5:00 p.m., Whalen Gymnasium

Fall Convocation: Speaker, David Baron, author of The Beast in the Garden

AUGUST 28 – DECEMBER 31 <http://library.fortlewis.edu/CRE/CatTales.html>

Cat Tales: Tell us your mountain lion stories!

Visit our interactive website to hear about other peoples' experiences with mountain lions and share your own. Record your cat tale on audio. Upload photos and video. View an interactive map of sightings in the area.

SEPTEMBER 12 – DECEMBER 9 Wednesdays, 5:30 – 6:00 pm

KDUR Radio 91.9/93.9 FM: "Making a Difference" with host, Bridget Irish.

A variety of interviews focused on The Beast in the Garden by David Baron.

SEPTEMBER 24 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., Community Concert Hall

Panel Discussion: Ideas and Issues related to The Beast in the Garden. Moderator: David Baron, author of The Beast in the Garden. Panelists: Marc Bekoff, author of Listening to Cougar; Steve Pavlik, Northwest Indian College faculty member; representatives of the Division of Wildlife (DOW), and the local ranching community.

OCTOBER 13 7:00 – 9:00 p.m., Ballroom, College Union Building

Lecture: Professional tracker, Lyle Willmarth, on Tracking Mountain Lions and other Animals

OCTOBER 5 – 19

Student Essay Competition: Prizes! Details to come

NOVEMBER 3 7:00 – 9:00 p.m. Noble 125

Film: TBA Discussion: Dr. Nancy Cardona, Associate Professor of English, Fort Lewis College

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION, EMAIL: irish_b@fortlewis.edu